

Rosie was excited that her friend Deja was coming for a playdate. Today they would play dress-up. She would get to dress up in her favorite costume, Elsa, from her favorite movie, Frozen.

When they went to Rosie's room, Rosie and Deja both grabbed the Elsa costume at the same time.

What should Rosie do?

During morning meeting, Miss Jemison pulls Ava's popsicle stick, and that means it's her time to share about her trip to the circus.

As Ava was sharing about the lion tamer, Johnathan blurts out that he really enjoyed the clowns riding around in the tiny car playing tricks on people in the audience. The timer went off, and carpet time was over.

Ava didn't get to share her story, she is so mad. What should Ava do?

George walks in from school and sees chocolate chip cookies on the counter. They are his favorite! He takes two for his snack.

As soon as he takes a bite, his brother comes in and yells at him, "Those are for the senior trip bake sale! I didn't make extras!"

He is so angry. What should George do?
